MARONITE LITURGY

Prostration at the Feet

There is still another bodily motion in prayer and it is prostration at the feet to petition and beseech, as the leper did, falling on Jesus' feet saying to Him: "If you wish, you can make me clean" (Mark 1:40); and the rich man who hurried to Jesus and knelt down before Him, and asked Him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" (Mark 10:17); and the man who approached, knelt down before him, and said, "Lord, have pity on my son, for he is possessed..." (Matthew 17:14). This gesture is an expression of faith in Jesus and His power, in confidence in Him and in respect for Him. It comes mainly from the heart and is made visible through bodily gestures. The opposite is "kneeling" or "falling on the feet" in mockery and debasement as the soldiers of the Governor did when, "Weaving a crown out of thorns, they placed it on his head, and a reed in his right hand. And kneeling before him, they mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" (Matthew 27:29)...
