WELCOME

Thank you for worshipping with us today. We are blessed by your presence. The Maronite Church is one of 21 Eastern Catholic Churches in full communion with Rome. The Maronite Church dates back to the early Christians of Antioch where "they were called Christians for the first time" (Acts 11:26)

Some differences you may notice

- + The Entrance dialog and Consecration are in Syriac Aramaic, the language of Jesus, Mary and the Apostles.
 - + The Sign of Peace begins at the altar and is carried to the congregants by peace bearers.
 - + Communion is by intinction and on the tongue. There is no communion in the hand.
- We hope and pray your experience is spiritually enriching.

QURBONO The Book of Offering

THE STRUCTURE OF THE NEW MARONITE QURBONO

The Internal Order

The Eastern Syriac Anaphora of Sharar

This anaphora bears various names, such as Anaphora of the Apostles, Anaphora of Saint Peter (the third), and Anaphora of Sharar (Sharar is the first Syriac word of the anaphora and means "confirm"). Several studies have been dedicated to this anaphora which bears a similarity to the Eastern Syriac Anaphora of Addai and Mari in use by the Assyrian Chaldean Churches. These two anaphoras may share the same Edessian origin dating back to the fifth century.

In the Maronite rite, the Anaphora of Sharar uses the same internal order in the Qurbono and in the rite for the consecration of chrism (myron) and baptismal water, on the eve of Epiphany. Without the shadow of doubt, the Maronite Church used the Anaphora of Sharar in the Qurbono, prior to the 16th century. In the first edition of the Book of Qurbono, this anaphora was placed after the others, but omitted in the second edition (1716). It then became known as the Qurbono of the Signing of the Chalice, which is the rite of communion for Great Friday.

The Anaphora of Sharar has its own order which is neither clear nor easy. As it stands now, it cannot be used, yet it should be studied and given a new order. The Patriarchal Commission on Liturgy has assumed this task in order to restore, as soon as possible, the Anaphora of Sharar, corrected and arranged in a definitive way to the Maronite liturgical life. From this it appears clearly that the Maronite Liturgy extends its roots to the Eastern Syriac sources. There is no need to note here the difficulty of our task; to restructure, on one hand, an anaphora which for hundreds of years has fallen from use, and to prepare, on the other, a similar rite for the consecration of the chrism (myron) and the baptismal water. We have thus postponed this work to the near future, God willing. ...continued

Prayer of the Week

Entrustment to Mary by St. Pope John Paul II

Mother of the Redeemer, with great joy we call you blessed.
In order to carry out His plan of salvation,
God the Father chose you before the creation of the world. You believed in His love and obeyed His word.
The Son of God desired you for His Mother when He became man to save the human race. You received Him with ready obedience and undivided heart.
The Holy Spirit loved you as His mystical spouse and filled you with singular gifts. You allowed yourself to be led by His hidden powerful action.
On the eve of the third Christian Millennium, we entrust to you the Church which acknowledges you and invokes you as Mother.
To you, Mother of human family and of the nations, we confidently entrust the whole humanity, with its hopes and fears.
Do not let it lack the light of true wisdom. Guide its steps in the ways of peace.
Enable all to meet Christ, the Way, the Truth, and the Life.
Sustain us, O Virgin Mary, on our journey of faith and obtain for us the grace of eternal salvation.
O clement, O loving, O sweet Mother of God and our Mother, Mary!
