Biography of Henry J. NAHAL

* Mr. NAHAL is the winner of the 2012 Silver Masabki Award.

Henry J. Nahal is the son of Henry P. Nahal and Marjorie Joseph of Scranton, Pennsylvania. And he is the grandson of:

* Paternal grandparents, Abdullah Bardaouil بر دويل

(changed to Nahal at Ellis Island) and Adele AbouKahild أبو خالد both of Zahle, LEBANON,

* And maternal grandparents, Assad Youseff (Joseph) and Amelia Rizk of Zahle.

Henry was baptized in St. Joseph's Melkite Church in Scranton where he later married Denise Abda. Denise's family, Haddad and Simon [original names, Semaan سمعان, were also changed at Ellis Island) of Ablah, LEBANON, of Scranton, and a communicant of St Joseph's.

Henry has been blessed with a wonderful family, a wife, two sons, Dennis and Henry James, daughter-in-law, Megan and two grandchildren, Mason and Henry Ryan. Henry has one brother, Albert, who has returned to the area after many years and is also active in St Ann's, currently serving as president of Saint Maron Men's Society for 2013.

Professionally, Henry graduated from Albany Law School with a Juris Doctor in Law. He has kept things interesting over the years practicing almost every aspect of law, but currently focuses on real estate, technology, and business development. Along the way there were side roads taken as a Chief Information Officer, and a Commissioner of a state agency.

And last but certainly not least, Henry is a valued member of St. Ann's Church serving as Legal Counsel, Chairperson of the Building & Maintenance Committee and Trustee.

Henry & Denise reside in East Greenbush.

Henry NAHAL Testimony

When I look back, it seems St. Ann had a plan for me all along. My great uncle Msgr. Michel Bardaouil, was responsible for the building of St. Ann Melkite Church in Hollywood, Calif. Being from Scranton and spending a lot of time growing up there, I was exposed to the outdoor novenas held every summer at St. Ann

Basilica. It was such a special place for us that, on the day of our wedding, Denise and I had our photos taken at the outdoor grotto at the Basilica.

The strong, spiritual connection to Saint Ann was also present in my wife's family. My father-in-law always expressed to everyone about his faithfulness to St. Ann and her constant support of him and her generosity in responding to his prayers.

In subtle ways, Saint Ann was calling me. My Father spoke about attending St. Ann's church while growing up and even later in life split his time between St. Augustine and St. Ann churches. Nabih, Wadad, Joe Kaddo, Father Joe Kayrouse, all kept St. Ann in their sights, even as my journey took me to Roman Catholic Churches. I even served as lector and on the Parish Council at St. Mary's in Clinton Heights where Denise taught for several years.

Soon after my Dad died, St. Ann came literally knocking on my front door in the form of Elias Hannoush, Wahdad Frangie and Father Elie. They asked Denise and me to come to St. Ann Church and become parishioners. We agreed with the understanding that we would continue to support St. Joseph's in Scranton as well as St. Ann's.

The rest is history. We began attending St. Ann's church, and it was more than a building, it was a community. It was a community of faith, bound together by the faithful and shared experiences. This community of faith and the rich Maronite liturgy and traditions were what we wanted. It was what Denise and I were looking for.

We both volunteered and found ways to apply our talents wherever they were needed. This was natural for us because we both believe that God is responsible for all the good things in life. God is like any Father; he wants only the best for his children. He gives us all good things in life. As we know from the scriptures, the gift of faith is extremely important because God can do miracles in our lives. This is not possible without our acceptance of faith of God's gift. We know this because you cannot come to faith through logic.

I am thankful, surprised, and grateful for this award. My efforts are focused on making St. Ann's goals and commitments come to fruition, not only in the physical plant but also in its continued growth and evangelization. I will continue to follow where he leads.

Thank you, for this honor, again.

Sincere Condolences

We join with the entire parish in offering our sincere condolences to Henry & Denise NAHAL on the passing of Denise's Aunt, Marie ABDA.

May her memory be eternal in the hearts and minds of her loved ones. Please keep them in your prayers. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord!

Via Crucis: Meditations to recall Middle East

Vatican City, 29 January 2013 (VIS) – Recalling his trip to Lebanon and inviting the whole Church to remember the problems of and the Christian communities in the Middle East in their prayers, the Holy Father Benedict XVI has invited—through his cardinal secretary of state—His Beatitude Bechara Boutros Rai, O.M.M., Patriarch of Antioch of the Maronites, to prepare the texts for the Via Crucis on Good Friday at the Colosseum. Under the guidance of the Patriarch, the texts will be prepared by two young Lebanese and will follow the traditional pattern of the fourteen stations.

Year of Faith - Preparing for Lent

When Does Lent Begin? and Why Ashes?

Catholics familiar only with the Latin Church may be surprised to learn that Ash Wednesday and its customs exist only in the Western church. The Eastern churches have other ways of counting the days of Lent, and of beginning this Great Fast.

The RC Church counts Holy Week as part of the Lenten Fast, but not the Sundays during the Lenten season. Therefore, in about the 8th Century, it was necessary to add four days to the beginning of Lent to bring the number of days up to the traditional 40. This was the origin of Ash Wednesday.

The Eastern Churches (both Catholic and Orthodox) consider Holy Week as a separate unit with its own Fasting and Abstinence requirements, not technically included in the Great Lent. Lent liturgically concludes on the evening of the 6th Friday of Great Lent, the vigil of Lazarus Saturday. Although we do not fast on Saturdays and Sundays, we do continue to abstain from certain kinds of foods on the Fridays of Lent. The Saturdays & Sundays of the Great Fast are counted in the total of days, thus bringing the number up to 40, counted from Ash Monday, the first day of Great Lent.

Why Ashes?

"Remember, man, you are dust, and unto dust you shall return."

So says the priest as he makes the sign of cross with ashes on our foreheads. The ashes are made by burning the previous year's blessed palms. This is a vivid reminder of our mortal nature. We are bodies fashioned from dust. "Then the Lord God formed man out of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living being" (Gen 2:7). Our bodies were made from nothing, and will return to nothing when we die. Ashes are a symbol of this passing world, a reminder of our death.

The imposition of ashes is also a symbol of penance and sorrow for our sins. Ashes remind us of the curse from Genesis. After Adam and Eve committed the Original Sin, God expelled them from the Garden of Eden with these words:

Cursed be the ground because of you; in toil shall you eat of it all the days of your life; thorns and thistles shall it bring forth to you, and you shall eat the plants in the field. In the sweat of your brow you shall eat bread, till you return to the ground, since out of it you were taken; for dust you are and unto dust you shall return (Gen 3:17-19).

Saint Maron

Saint Maron, born in the middle of the 4th century was a priest who later became a hermit, retiring to a mountain of Taurus near Antioch. His holiness and miracles attracted many followers, and drew attention throughout the empire. St John of Chrysostom sent him a letter around 405 AD expressing his great love and respect asking St Maron to pray for him.

St Maron is considered the Father of the spiritual and monastic movement now called the Maronite Church. This movement had a profound influence on Northern Syria and Lebanon. Saint Maron spent all of his life on a mountain in the region of Cyrhus in Syria.

St Maron was a mystic who started this new ascetic-spiritual method that attracted many people in Syria and Lebanon to become his disciples. Accompanying his deeply spiritual and ascetic life, he was a zealous missionary with a passion to spread the message of Christ by preaching it to all he met. He sought not only to cure the physical ailments that people suffered, but had a great quest for nurturing and healing the "lost souls" of both pagans and Christians of his time.

This missionary work came to fruition when in the mountains of Syria, St Maron was able to convert a pagan temple into a Christian Church. This was to be the beginning of the conversion of Paganism to Christianity in Syria which would then influence and spread to Lebanon. After his death in the year 410 AD, his spirit and teachings lived on through his disciples.

St Maron's way was deeply monastic with emphasis on the spiritual and ascetic aspects of living. For Saint Maron, all was connected to God and God was connected to all. He did not separate the physical and spiritual world and actually used the physical world to deepen his faith and spiritual experience with God.

St Maron embraced the quiet solitude of the mountain life. He lived his life in open air exposed to the forces of nature such as sun, rain, hail and snow. His extraordinary desire to come to know God's presence in all things, allowed St. Maron to transcend such forces and discover that intimate union with God. He was able to free himself from the physical world by his passion and fervor for prayer and enter into a mystical relationship of love with God.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord and may perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen
