Lenten Observances 2013

The Most Reverend Bishops Robert Shaheen and Gregory Mansour have issued the following Lenten guidelines for the Maronites of the United States:

- ❖ All Maronites who are physically capable [...] all Fridays of Lent.
- ❖ Great Friday of the Crucifixion is also day of fasting. Fasting in the Maronite Church involves eating and drinking nothing at all (except water and medicine) from midnight until noon. The rest of the day normal meals can be taken but without meat. All Maronites who are physically capable are to fast on these two days.

PS: Women who are pregnant and persons who are sick are not required to fast.

Lenten Bible Study Program

Every Thursday, from 7:30 – 8:30 pm at the Church Hall

Daughters of St. Ann Upcoming Sales

March 17 - Decorated Candles – a MUST for the children on Palm Sunday. The candles will be decorated with a neutral color scheme. Should you wish to add a specific color to match an outfit, call Georgette Hannoush @ 489-1606.

March 24 - SWEETS will be available, just in time for Easter. These homemade delicacies are perfect as gifts or to fill children's baskets.

March 29 – Flower - The Daughters of St. Ann will be selling flowers to carry to the tomb of Jesus on Good Friday.

Thank you ALL for your support. These sales are a labor of love entailing hard work and precious personal time. Monies raised go towards the building fund.

Missal Book, Qurbono

New Liturgical books of the Divine Liturgy are here! You can sponsor a book in memory / honor of a loved one. Suggested contributions: $25.00 Envelopes for this purpose are on the table in the rear of the church.

Good Friday Meatless Potluck Dinner

On Good Friday, the parish will host its annual meatless potluck dinner. The gathering will be held in the church hall on Good Friday, March 29 from 4:30 - 6:15. This annual Maronite tradition brings the community together, first for a Lenten meal, followed by the solemn liturgical service commemorating Great Friday of the Crucifixion.

Patti Thornton is graciously organizing this event. Please give her a call at 783-9809, and let her know what dish you will be bringing to share. There will be a signup sheet in the back of the church! Thank you in advance for your contribution on this holy day.

Prayer for the Election of a New Pope

O God, eternal shepherd, who govern your flock with unfailing care, grant in your boundless fatherly love a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Adopt a cardinal

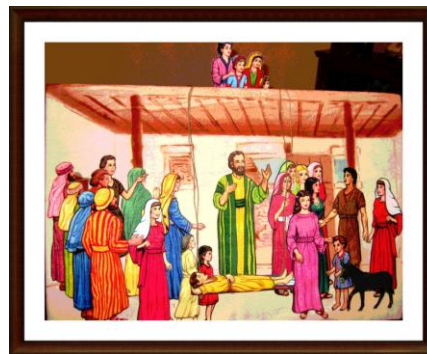

This is a catholic web site open to all who wish to pray for a cardinal. After a simple registration, a member of the College of Cardinals is randomly assigned to you, along with some info about him. You are asked to pray for 'your' cardinal during this period of deliberations and voting. This small action provides you with an opportunity to be personally involved in the process while ensuring much needed prayers. This also would be good idea for kids to let them feel involved. <http://adoptacardinal.org/>

HEALING OF THE PARALYTIC

Icon Description: This icon symbolizes the healing of the paralytic in body and soul. The disciples are shown to be with Jesus, to counterbalance the members of the Sanhedrin who mingled with the crowd and who sought a way to entrap Jesus. The crowded presence of the people shows that the miracle took place when Jesus was in the house and when He came to the city. The important role of the four friends, who brought their sick and helpless friend to Jesus, is emphasized by their position high up on the roof. In the same way, we should not, when paralyzed and helpless without Him, come to Jesus alone to receive healing; but we must bring our loved ones to Him also, through prayer and through the caring, healing ministry of the Church.

Kids Korner

Today's story is about a man who was paralyzed. Being paralyzed means he could not walk. Try to imagine how hard it would be to do things if you couldn't walk around. Jesus came to the town of Capernaum. So many people came to see him that it was impossible to enter through the door of the house. The man's friends lowered him down through the house roof. Jesus was moved by this. He saw their faith. Jesus said "Son, your sins are forgiven." He wanted to show the Rulers that He had been given authority and power by God the Father. "Get up. Take your bed and go home." And it happened! The man got up and walked! Like the paralytic, we must have faith in God. Not only can Jesus heal us but He can take away our sins.

Interregnum – Electing the next pope

The period of transition between the end of one papacy and the beginning of another is referred to by two names. "Sede vacante" in the Church's official Latin, is translated "vacant see," meaning that the see (or diocese) of Rome is without a bishop. In the 20th century this transition averaged just 17 days. It is also referred to as the Interregnum, a reference to the days when popes were also temporal monarchs who reigned over vast territories. The coat of arms of the Holy See also changes during this period. Instead of the papal tiara over the keys, the tiara is replaced with the umbraculum or ombrellino in Italian. This symbolizes both the lack of a Pope and also the governance of the Camerlengo over the temporalities of the Holy See.

INTERREGNUM TERMS

What is a Cardinal?

The ecclesiastical rank of Cardinal dates from the time of Pope Sylvester I, around 315 AD. It was given to the closest advisors of the Pope. The actual offices held by Cardinals today are within the Roman Curia or as archbishop of an important diocese. Cardinals, therefore, are generally bishops, though the Popes may grant exceptions. In recent decades this exception has been granted for theologians the Popes have wished to honor. Under current law, a Cardinal must at least be a priest.

Pastoral Parish Council Minutes – Session #29 - Date: Wednesday, February 06, 2013 – 6.30 P.M.

Attendees: Joe Jabour, Georgette Hannoush, Michel Boutros, Henry Nahal, Albert Nahal and Fr. Georges Bouchaaya.

Absent: Patti Thornton, Rosemary Patnode (Dedication Committee), Eva Abdallah, Betty Karrat, Sr. Florence and Richard Thornton (Dedication Committee).

✓ Meeting started at 6:30 pm.

I. PARISH COUNCIL, LAY ORGANIZATIONS AND COMMITTEES

1. Daughters of St. Ann- E-mail from Eva regarding Bake Sale. Unable to attend because her father is still in the hospital.
2. St. Maron Men's Society- Need more people. Only about 5 men showed up. Should consider an Open House on a Sat. with officers and members present to encourage others to get involved. Other suggestions: Church Day – in the hall. Show movies, play cards etc... Also considering changing the meeting from Tuesday to Wednesday. Money should be deposited the same or next day for any fundraiser or event. For safety and to be considerate of those who count the money each week. Proceeds from the Cigar Night are still being calculated. Estimates are between $375.00 – $400.00. Members will be informed of the Church Policy for the deposit of monies. Men's Club is also in need of tax exempt forms.
3. Faith Formation Committee- Sr. Florence was not present. Father mentioned that a Bible study based on the Year of Faith will start during lent.
4. Building & Maintenance Committee- New door installed on the back stairs to separate the hall from the Church. Need locks on both sides of the door. Attempting to finish up all the "loose ends" before the dedication. Consider having a brief meeting after Mass on Sunday to discuss progress and needs. Attempting to hook up the organ before Easter. Also will have landscaping done to give the outside a facelift. Some of the work will be weather dependant, like fences, planting etc...
5. Watervliet Church Dedication Committee- Need to start working on the Commemorative Book. Nancy Nicholas, Michael Ryan and Yola Nicholas will head this project. Profits from the Commemorative Book could be around $30,000.

II. PASTORAL PROJECTS

6. Pastoral Visit of Bishop Gregory Mansour on December 19 & 20, 2012- Trustees Report. Bishop Gregory was pleased with the progress of the Church. Talked about the Grant and the ongoing need for money. Discussed the number of "active" parishioners. As Trustees, the Bishop stated to Henry and Georgette if there are any problems, to discuss them with him.

"Your sins are forgiven... Arise, take up your bed and walk," (Mk 2:9)

The College of Cardinals is composed of the men whom the Pope has elevated to the dignity of Cardinal, entrusting them with the duty to be his close advisors and collaborators, and to elect his successor. The decisions of the College are made collectively, and ratified by the Pope, unless of course there is no Pope. During such a Papal Interregnum the Cardinals gather in General Congregation to decide by majority vote on the funeral of the Pope, the beginning of the Conclave to elect a new Pope, as well as any ordinary business of the Holy See which cannot wait, in keeping with papal law, currently the Apostolic Constitution Universi Dominici Gregis.

What is a Cardinal Bishop?

Cardinals who hold the more important offices in the Roman Curia or who, being Patriarchs of Eastern Catholic Churches, have been granted equivalent dignity in law since Pope Paul VI, are called Cardinal Bishops.

What is a Cardinal Priest?

Cardinals Priests are those Cardinals who hold the middle, and by far the most numerous, rank of the College of Cardinals. They include officials of the Roman Curia, as well as Archbishops of major dioceses from around the world.

What is a Cardinal Deacon?

Cardinals Deacons hold the lowest of the ranks of Cardinals. There ranks include officials of the Roman Curia, and theologians honored by the Pope for their contribution to the Church.

Under current ecclesiastical law all cardinals under the age of 80 are eligible to vote. With 115 eligible electors, 77 votes are needed to reach the two-thirds majority to be elected pope.

It was suggested to install three flags, American, Lebanese and Papal. . So that new people will know that we are Catholic. Also suggested was a sign for the side of the building as well as the front.

7. Feast of Saint Maron Celebration: Mass & Luncheon-February 3, 2013. Very successful lunch. Although small in numbers, all those in attendance had a good time. Some complaints about the price were received. Profit appears to be around $750.00. We continue to try and make our new parishioners welcome.
8. Lent & Holy Week Activities- Update on Saturday Mass and Parish Schedules- Joe Jabour is attempting to advertise our Mass schedule. Discussed Mass hours for Sat and Sun. Some people have requested a time change for the Masses. Discussions will continue.

III. FUNDRAISER PROJECTS

9. Bulletin Ads- Joe Jabour and Mike Rezey are working on the ads with the help of Jeanette Karam August. Father is looking for someone to be in charge of this project. Suggestion has been made to decrease the cost of the ads for parishioners. Discussion will continue in this area.
10. It was discussed that Henry will make an announcement at Mass regarding the cleaning of the hall after Coffee Hour.

✓ Meeting ended at 8:30 p.m. with a Concluding prayer.

Bishop's Appeal 2013

Please take the time to read our beloved Bishop's letter provided here. Many depend on this "appeal" especially our seminarians, retired priests, mission churches, and many other charitable causes. We realize that these are tough economic times, but keep in mind that our dear Lord has given us much and continues to give us so much that our contribution is but a small token for His great generosity. As a reminder, our share of the Bishop's Appeal is $2,000.00 (and parish Assessment is $4,500.00) regardless of how much is collected. As always, please... give generously.

Prot. No. 107/1/13

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Every year you have responded generously to our appeal to support our many Eparchial services because you know that together we can do so much more than we can do alone.

You train our seminarians (8 of them) and support our retired priests (11 of them), you help to develop programs and catechetical texts for children and youth, support retreats for our deacons and subdeacons. You have helped us prepare translations of our liturgical texts, you help our new religious community for women, the Maronite Servants of Christ the Light, and you assist our Patriarch and Bishops in Lebanon and Syria to reach out to the poor and needy.

In order to be worthy of your continued trust, six years ago we began a pro-active and thorough program of financial accountability and transparency in every parish and institution of the Eparchy. The Eparchy is also audited by an outside accounting firm, Walter Cook and Associates, which investigates all aspects of the Eparchy's financial dealings. We publish this report annually in the Maronite Voice.

You have made the success of the Eparchy of Saint Maron of Brooklyn possible because of your great confidence and generosity. This year we will have 5 ordinations to the priesthood! Yet we have so much more to do. Please open your hearts once again to help your Eparchy to fulfill her God-given calling to make known the face of Christ in the world.

The Annual Eparchial Appeal is one of our most important efforts because each person in the Eparchy is asked to help with the effort. Your donation to the 2013 Appeal is greatly appreciated and much needed. Thank you for your support.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Gregory

GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION

In a letter sent to Bishops around the world, Cardinal Leonardo Sandri, Prefect of the Congregation for Eastern Churches, made an appeal for the Good Friday Collection in support of the Holy Land. The people of the Holy Land, along with their pastors he said, "live the mystery of Christ, Crucified and Risen for the salvation of mankind."

The Holy Land, he said, "is the silent witness and living custodian, thanks to the Latin communities of the Patriarchal Diocese of Jerusalem and the Franciscan Custody, as also to the Melkite, Maronite, Syrian, Armenian, Copt and Chaldean faithful active there".

Cardinal Sandri went on to say that the assistance that comes from the annual Good Friday collection maintains not only the Holy Sites but also the communities that dwell around them.

"Together with institutes of men and women religious, the funds collected provide immediate relief to the catastrophic consequences of war and other emergencies," he said. "Through a qualified network of pastoral, educational and health care specialists, these resources come to the aid of families, often saving lives that have been rejected: the old, the sick, and the disabled. In addition, aid is provided to those without work and to youth in search of a brighter future. In every case, the collection seeks to build up human rights, especially the right to religious liberty."

"Your sins are forgiven... Arise, take up your bed and walk," (Mk 2:9)

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord and may perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen
