Father George's Absence

Fr. George will be away from December 26 to January 10, 2014 for a family function in Lebanon. During his absence, we welcome Msgr. David George from Springfield MA, who will celebrate Divine Liturgy on Sundays. There will be no daily mass during this period.

In the event of an emergency, please contact Msgr. George [413-636-2628] or sub-deacon in training, Rick Thornton [518-364-6645].

Please keep Fr. George in your prayers as he travels. He will be praying for all of you.

Special Thank You from Fr. George

This humble message comes from the heart and with you in mind. I would like to extend my gratitude and sincere thanks for the kindness and generosity shown to me through the many cards and many other expressions of good wishes during the Christmas Season and for my travel to Lebanon.

May the peace and joy of Christ's love be yours throughout the New Year. Thank you and it is greatly appreciated. Please be assured of my prayers for you and your families at the Shrine of Our Lady of Lebanon, Harissa - Lebanon.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

Father George BOUCHAAYA, M.L.M.

Annual Maronite Clergy Retreat

Per the directive of Bishop Gregory J. MANSOUR, all clergy of the Eparchy of St Maron of Brooklyn are required to attend an annual retreat, the week of January 13 – 17, 2014, at "Our Lady of Florida Spiritual Center" in North Palm Beach, FL. During the pastor's absence, there will be no 7:30 AM Divine Liturgy. In case an emergency arises in your family, please contact a Latin priest.

Please keep Bishop Gregory, Fr. George and the priests in your prayers.

2014 Offertory Envelopes

As we approach the start of the coming year, I take a moment to remind and encourage all parishioners to obtain a box of weekly envelopes for the upcoming year 2014.

Those who currently do not use envelopes for our Sunday collection, please take a moment and think of the benefit you may have at the end of the year by claiming your donations to your church on your tax return.

We welcome new parishioners into the envelope system as we ask the Lord to reward you for all you do and give to your spiritual Home.

If your name is not on a box & you would like a box for next year's use, and in order to keep your information up to date, please call the rectory at (518) 272-6073 or leave a note in the basket collection or via e-mail at stann1905@gmail.com for any change of address or other important information.

Thank You for your generosity during this past year.

Urgent Stem Cell Request Donor

Cathy Christine Habeeb-Sheehan, age 44 and the mother of 3 young children, now living in Boston, was diagnosed with Acute Myeloid Leukemia in April, 2013, necessitating a stem cell transplant. Her brother was a match, but the transplant failed. Unfortunately, there are no other donor matches in either the US National or global Donor Registers. The medical staffs at Boston's Dana Farber Institute are seeking potential donors. The ideal donor is aged 18 to 44 years old. Middle Eastern ethnicity might be helpful, but not required. Please contact Fr. George for more detailed information.

EPIPHANY OF OUR LORD

"And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it." (Jn 1:5)

In this icon of the Baptism, Christ receives baptism at the hands of John the Baptist, the last of the prophets of the Old Covenant. Here, the Old and New Covenants meet in the water of the Jordan- the old baptism for repentance of sins, and the lasting baptismal rebirth of water and the spirit, as brought by Jesus in the New Covenant (Lk 3:16). For this reason, the bottom of this icon depicts symbols of the initiation Sacraments of the Christian Church- Baptism, Chrismation and the Eucharist. On either side are representations of confirmation of the Holy Spirit in purifying water: the Spirit of God hovering over the waters in creation (Ge 1:2), and the traditional "Blessing of the Waters" with the Cross in the Epiphany liturgy. In this icon of the Baptism, Christ is stripped of His eternal robe of glory and naked, is robed in the waters of the Jordan which itself shines forth with the beams of His glory and light. Here, He is clothed in our humanity, that we, in our baptism, might be clothed in His eternity. The symbol of the sun and the moon represent the cosmic light that Christ brings on his Feast of Epiphany..

Synaxarion

Today, we celebrate the feast of the Epiphany of our Lord Jesus Christ. In the Eastern Churches, this feast is known by two names: Epiphany and Theophany. The Greek word, "Epiphany" means "a manifestation" or "an apparition" and the word, "Theophany", "an appearance of God." On this day, we celebrate the appearance or manifestation of Christ among us as God's Son.

The feast of Epiphany was first celebrated in the East around the third century and eventually was adopted by the Western Church. In the Eastern Churches, the celebration of the Epiphany originally centered on both the Birth of our Lord and his baptism. When the later Western feast of Christmas was introduced into the East, Christmas became the feast of the Birth of Our Lord and the Epiphany, that of his baptism.

The feast of the Epiphany is intimately connected with the mystery of our Lord's birth. The Child who was born for us and the Son who was given to us is manifested before us to be the Son of the Most High. Christ begins his public life with his baptism by John in the Jordan river. At his baptism, Christ is seen as the fulfillment of John's preaching: he is the Messiah and the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. The Father and the Holy Spirit are witnesses to Christ for he is the beloved Son of the Father and upon him the Spirit rests. Thus at the baptism of the Lord, we have not only an epiphany or manifestation of Christ as God's Son, but also a theophany or manifestation of the Holy Trinity - Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

The feast of the Epiphany reminds us not only of the baptism of Christ, but also of our own baptism. St. Ephrem, in his Hymn on Epiphany, says: "... our blessed Lord came to be baptized with sinners and because of his glory, the heavens were opened. The One who purifies all creatures, desiring to cleanse them, went into the waters and sanctified them for our baptism." It is for this reason that we bless water on this day. Originally, the mystery of baptism was celebrated on this feast and the waters blessed were those of baptism.

Today, we celebrate the manifestation or epiphany of the Trinity at the baptism of Christ as well as the manifestation of the glory of God in the person of the Lord come into the world, that is to say, the manifestation of Christ, the Word of God, among us. Let us then call to mind the grace of God who has appeared for the salvation of all, and thank him for the baptism through which we have been begotten in the Spirit and through which we have put on Christ and become children of the Father.

Pope at January 1 Mass:

Mary, Mother of God, Mother for all

(Vatican Radio) Pope Francis welcomed the new year Wednesday with a solemn morning mass in St. Peter's Basilica, calling the faithful to look to Mary as a Mother to all and messenger of hope.

In his homily for this, the Solemnity of the Mother of God, Pope Francis said "there is no more meaningful time than the beginning of a new year" to hear God's blessing "The Lord bless you and keep you.... The Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace."

These "words of strength, courage and hope" "will accompany our journey through the year opening up before us," the Pope said.

But, the Pope warned, this is not "an illusory hope based on human frail promises, or a naïve hope which presumes that the future will be better simply because it is the future." Rather, he reminded the faithful, it is a hope based on God's blessing, containing the "greatest message of good wishes there can be and this is the message which the Church brings to each of us."

The message of hope in God's blessing, the Pope stressed, "was fully realized in a woman, Mary, who was destined to become the Mother of God."

"Mother of God is the first and most important title of Our Lady," Pope Francis said, noting that in their devotion to her from early times, the faithful had understood this "from the beginning."

Pope Francis recalled the ancient Council of Ephesus which "authoritatively defined" the divine motherhood of the Virgin Mary and later "the first Marian shrine in Rome and the entire West" which was erected in devotion to her in the Basilica of Saint Mary Major.

Mary is our Mother too, the Pope reminded us, "ever since Jesus, dying on the Cross, gave her to us as our Mother, saying 'Behold your Mother!'"

Through the most difficult and trying times, Mary's "sorrowing heart was enlarged to make room for all men and women, whether good or bad," the Pope said, and she communicates "her maternal affection to each and every person... a source of hope and true joy."

Inviting the faithful to entrust to her "the journey of faith, the desires of our heart, our needs and the needs of the whole world, especially of those who hunger and thirst for justice and peace," Pope Francis said by Mary's "example of humility and openness to God's will she helps us to transmit our faith in a joyful proclamation of the Gospel to all, without reservation." And turning towards the statue of Our Lady near the high altar, Pope Francis invoked her three times, repeating forcefully: "Holy Mother of God!"

Sharing the Vision of Christ

The parish of St. Ann has adopted this theme for 2014. Throughout the year, we will be posting some insights into that vision and how we, as a community, can bring it to fruition. To kick off the New Year, consider this quote from Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen:

Why should we pray? Why breathe? We have to take in fresh air and get rid of bad air; we have to take in new power and get rid of old weaknesses.

We pray because we are orchestras and always need to unite-up. Just as a battery sometimes runs down and needs to be charged, so we have to be renewed in spiritual vigor. Our blessed Lord said,

"Without Me you can do nothing."

Maronites on the Web

The Website www.maronite-heritage.com was created on April 26, 2004, by Fr. Antonio Elfeghali, a Maronite priest and a religious member of the Maronite Order of the Blessed Virgin Mary (OMM). The web site offers extensive information on the Maronite Church including the liturgical calendar, saints, church history, the Synod of 2004 and more.

Following his ordination in 2001, Fr. Antonio has served in the US, Lebanon and is currently assigned to Uruguay. Fr. Antonio also maintains a Facebook group, "Maronites of the Whole World". Its link is available through the Maronite Heritage site.

Welcome Back!

The community of St. Ann extends a warm welcome back to Msgr. David George from Springfield, MA. Thank you, Abouna, for leading us to Christ through prayer and reflection.

Prayer for the New Year

Dear Lord,

We pray that this New Year will bring us closer to You. May we take the time to get to know You. Help us to truly celebrate the gifts You have graciously given us and use them to serve You and spread Your word, May we also see and love you in all the people we meet, so that in turn, they can see You in us.

We know that all human relations take time if they are to grow and deepen. This is also true of our relations with You, the Father and the Holy Spirit, which must grow over the course of our lives. In this new year, let us realize that every action of ours no matter how great or small enables us to be in touch with You.

Let us accept You in our lives, in the way it pleases You, as Truth, to be spoken, as Life, to be lived, as Light, to be lighted, as Love, to be followed, as Joy, to be given, as Peace, to be spread about, as Sacrifice, to be offered among our relatives, friends, neighbors and all people. Amen

2013 Christmas Flowers Memorials & Donations

With grateful thanks to those who contributed toward Christmas flower in honor and/or in memory of loved ones and to those who donated anonymously to help decorate the Church for Easter and to your help with decorations throughout the year. You and your living and deceased family members and friends will be remembered in our prayers at the Christmas Divine Liturgy.
