WELCOME

Thank you for worshipping with us today. We are blessed by your presence. The Maronite Church is one of 21 Eastern Catholic Churches in full communion with Rome. The Maronite Church dates back to the early Christians of Antioch where "they were called Christians for the first time" (Acts 11:26)

Some differences you may notice

- + The Entrance dialog and Consecration are in Syriac Aramaic, the language of Jesus, Mary and the Apostles.
 - + The Sign of Peace begins at the altar and is carried to the congregants by peace bearers.
 - + Communion is by intinction and on the tongue. There is no communion in the hand.
- We hope and pray your experience is spiritually enriching.

BULLETIN June 8 – 9, 2019

QURBONO The Book of Offering THE STRUCTURE OF THE NEW MARONITE QURBONO

The Internal Order PreAnaphora and Creed

The Pre-Anaphora is composed of a group of actions and prayers linking the first and second parts of the liturgy. Anaphora is a Greek term meaning "the offering of the Qurbono". This part begins with the Creed and includes the processional transfer of the gifts, their offering at the altar, and the incensation of the altar, gifts, and people. The Nicene-Constantinople Creed is currently used in the Maronite Church. It was introduced in the Service of the Qurbono during the fifth century. Formerly, it was considered as the testimony of the catechumens, made before they were admitted to the Mystery of Baptism; later on, it became the profession of faith of the baptized faithful before the Eucharist, once the catechumens were dismissed from the church.

IMPORTANT CALL FOR HELP

The Food Festival is fast approaching and we need your help to make it a success. This is a major fundraiser. Monies raised will be used to maintain this church which is on the National Register of Historic Landmarks. Your assistance is especially needed on the following days, no prior experience necessary. See calendar in hall for times.

We can certainly use help on June 14-15. Please check the signup sheet in the hall to volunteer on those days! There is a job for everyone, young and old alike. We truly appreciate your assistance. If you would like to help defray the expenses of the food festival, you can make a tax-deductible check out to St Ann church. Call Betty Karrat at 518-225-6277 if you have any questions. And please do not forget to mark your calendar for this special event and bring your family and friends.
