Thank you for worshipping with us today. We are blessed by your presence. The Maronite Church is one of 21 Eastern Catholic Churches in full communion with Rome. The Maronite Church dates back to the early Christians of Antioch where "they were called Christians for the first time" (Acts 11:26)

Some differences you may notice

- + The Entrance dialog and Consecration are in Syriac Aramaic, the language of Jesus, Mary and the Apostles.
 - + The Sign of Peace begins at the altar and is carried to the congregants by peace bearers.
 - + Communion is by intinction and on the tongue. There is no communion in the hand.
- We hope and pray your experience is spiritually enriching.

QURBONO The Book of Offering

THE STRUCTURE OF THE NEW MARONITE QURBONO

The Internal Order

The Western Syriac Anaphora

A great number of the Western Syriac Anaphoras are used by the Maronites. We find some of them in the Maronite manuscripts, mainly in the compilation of anaphoras prepared by Patriarch Duwaih. This compilation contains thirty anaphoras, some of them bearing non- Maronite names. Their texts vary from one manuscript to another. However, some of these anaphoras are well known and go back to before the tenth century; they have been adopted by several manuscripts and also by all the succeeding editions of the Book of the Qurbono.

As for us, we have adopted in this edition six anaphoras only, hoping that later on we will be able to complete them, until we reach at least twenty- four anaphoras. The six anaphoras currently selected all belong to the Maronite tradition prior to the tenth century. Here they are listed as they appear in the book:

Anaphora of the Twelve Apostles;
Anaphora of Saint Peter, Head of the Apostles (O God of Peace);
Anaphora of Saint James, Brother of the Lord;
Anaphora of Saint John the Apostle;
Anaphora of Saint Mark the Evangelist;
Anaphora of Sixtus, Pope of Rome.

These anaphoras were the subject of a number of studies, some of which were published in a scholarly manner. We have adopted here the scholarly text of the published anaphoras, and, for the non- published ones, we have relied on the liturgical text in common use.

Prayer of the Week

Prayer Of St. John Paul II For Guidance

With all my heart I seek You; let me not stray from Your commands... Open my eyes, that I may consider the wonders of Your law. I am a wayfarer of earth; hide not Your commands from me... Make me understand the way of Your precepts, and I will meditate on Your wondrous deeds... Your compassion is great, O Lord...

O God, You are our Creator. You are good and Your mercy knows no bounds. To You arises the praise of every creature.

O God, You have given us an inner law by which we must live. To do Your will is our task. To follow Your ways is to know peace of heart. To You we offer our homage.

Guide us on all the paths we travel upon this earth. Free us from all the evil tendencies which lead our hearts away from Your will. Never allow us to stray from You.

O God, judge of all humankind, help us to be included among Your chosen ones on the last day.

O God, Author of peace and justice, give us true joy and authentic love, and a lasting solidarity among peoples.
Give us Your everlasting gifts. Amen!
