WELCOME

Thank you for worshipping with us today. We are blessed by your presence. The Maronite Church is one of 21 Eastern Catholic Churches in full communion with Rome. The Maronite Church dates back to the early Christians of Antioch where "they were called Christians for the first time" (Acts 11:26)

Some differences you may notice

- + The Entrance dialog and Consecration are in Syriac Aramaic, the language of Jesus, Mary and the Apostles.
 - + The Sign of Peace begins at the altar and is carried to the congregants by peace bearers.
 - + Communion is by intinction and on the tongue. There is no communion in the hand.
- We hope and pray your experience is spiritually enriching.

QURBONO The Book of Offering

THE STRUCTURE OF THE NEW MARONITE QURBONO

The Internal Order

The Six Anaphoras of the New Text of the Qurbono

We adopted the six anaphoras, indicated above, with some variations, mainly:

The words of consecration, that is the narrative of the eucharistic institution during the Last Supper, originally varied from one anaphora to another. However, we could not go back to the literal text of each anaphora, since the text of the words of consecration in the present situation of the Maronite rite has assumed a new shape, in its content as well as in its form. Thus, we have limited our choice from all the anaphoras to one single text for the words of consecration. We have selected the text of the Anaphora of the Twelve Apostles; we have added to it those slight touch-ups deemed necessary in order to round out the content as well as the form, and to accommodate the musical melody.

We have provided the texts of all anaphoras, without exception, with an Arabic translation facing the Syriac text. We wanted this translation to be elegant and abridged, especially in the commemorations.

The Structure of the Anaphoras

We will not concentrate on each individual anaphora; rather, we will follow the overall structure of the six anaphoras, for they are totally similar to each other. We will explain their prayers and actions in the order assigned to them. We, however, will not list our sources and the many references to our explanations.

Prayer of the Week

Marian Prayer of Saint Ephrem

O Immaculate and wholly-pure Virgin Mary, Mother of God, Queen of the world, hope of those who are in despair:
You are the joy of the saints; you are the peacemaker between sinners and God; you are the advocate of the abandoned, the secure haven of those who are on the sea of the world;
you are the consolation of the world, the ransom
of slaves, the comfortress of the afflicted.
O great Queen, we take refuge in your protection.
After God, you are all my hope.
We bear the name of your servants;
allow not the enemy to drag us to hell.
I salute you, O great mediatrix of peace between men and God, Mother of Jesus our Lord,
who is the love of all men and of God,
to whom be honor and benediction with the Father and the Holy Ghost.

Amen!
